Privacy Notice

At Computershare, we take privacy seriously. In the course of providing services to you in connection with employee stock purchase plans, dividend reinvestment plans, direct stock purchase plans, direct registration services and/or custody services, we receive nonpublic, personal information about you. We receive this information through transactions we perform for you, from enrollment forms, automatic debit forms, and through other communications with you in writing, electronically, and by telephone. We may also receive information about you by virtue of your transaction with affiliates of Computershare or other parties. This information may include your name, address (residential and mailing), social security number, bank account information, stock ownership information, date of birth, government-issued identification number, and other financial information.

With respect both to current and former customers, Computershare does not share nonpublic personal information with any non-affiliated third-party except as necessary to process a transaction, service your account or as required or permitted by law. Our affiliates and outside service providers with whom we share information are legally bound not to disclose the information in any manner, unless required or permitted by law or other governmental process. We strive to restrict access to your personal information to those employees who need to know the information to provide our services to you. Computershare maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your personal information.

Computershare realizes that you entrust us with confidential personal and financial information and we take that trust very seriously.

COST BASIS DISCLOSURE

IRS regulations require that Computershare and other brokers/agents provide additional information to you and to the IRS when you sell certain securities. If you sold or transferred shares/units and did not specify a cost basis calculation method we have defaulted to either the first in, first out (FIFO) for equity issuers or for certain closed-end funds, average cost basis method. All covered and noncovered information set forth in this document is for informational purposes. The information is based on data in our records as of the date of this mailing. Cost basis data may be subject to change based on events such as wash sales, splits and price adjustments.

POWER OF ATTORNEY
NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

NOT ORIGINAL

(a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your accounts are located.

You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

(b) DESIGNATION OF AGENT(S):

I, Domenica Patricia Blair, residing at 295 Font Grove Road, Slingerlands, New York 12159, hereby appoint:

James Edward Blair, Jr., residing at 463 Stove Pipe Road, Voorheesville, New York 12186, as my agent.

If you designate more than one agent above, they must act together unless you initial the statement below.

( ) My agents may act SEPARATELY.

(c) DESIGNATION OF SUCCESSOR AGENT(s): (OPTIONAL)

If any agent designated above is unable or unwilling to serve, I appoint as my successor agent(s):

Kristina Anne Carras, residing at 2 Seeley Drive, Albany, New York 12203.

Successor agent designated above must act together unless you initial the statement below.

( ) My successor agent may act SEPARATELY.

You may provide for specific succession rules in this section. Insert specific succession provisions here:

(d) This POWER OF ATTORNEY shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity unless I have stated otherwise below, under "Modifications".

(e) This POWER OF ATTORNEY DOES NOT REVOKE any Powers of Attorney previously executed by me unless I have stated otherwise below, under "Modifications".

If you do NOT intend to revoke your prior Powers of Attorney, and if you have granted the same authority in this Power of Attorney as you granted to another agent in a prior Power of Attorney, each agent can act separately unless you indicate under "Modifications" that the agents with the same authority are to act together.

(f) GRANT OF AUTHORITY:

To grant your agent some or all of the authority below, either

(1) Initial the bracket at each authority you grant, or

(2) Write or type the letters for each authority you grant on the blank line at (P), and initial the bracket at (P). If you initial (P), you do not need to initial the other lines.

I grant authority to my agent (s) with respect to the following subjects as defined in sections 5-1502A through 5-1502N of the New York General Obligations Law:

- ( ) (A) real estate transactions;
- ( ) (B) chattel and goods transactions;
- ( ) (C) bond, share, and commodity transactions;
- ( ) (D) banking transactions;
- ( ) (E) business operating transactions;
- ( ) (F) insurance transactions;
- ( ) (G) estate transactions;
- ( ) (H) claims and litigations;
- ( ) (I) personal and family maintenance: If you grant your agent this authority, it will allow the agent to make gifts that you customarily have made to individuals, including the agent, and charitable organizations. The total amount of all such gifts in any one calendar year cannot exceed five hundred dollars;
- ( ) (J) benefits from governmental programs or civil or military service;
- ( ) (K) health care billing and payment matters; records, reports and statements;
- ( ) (L) retirement benefit transactions;

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. This section also outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, ensuring that the information is reliable and up-to-date.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of the proposed changes. It details the steps involved in the rollout process, from initial planning to final execution. This section also addresses potential challenges and provides strategies to overcome them, ensuring a smooth transition to the new system.

3. The third part of the document discusses the ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the project. It highlights the need for continuous communication and collaboration between all stakeholders involved. This section also provides a framework for assessing the progress and impact of the project, allowing for timely adjustments and improvements.

4. The fourth part of the document concludes with a summary of the key findings and recommendations. It reiterates the importance of maintaining accurate records and the need for ongoing monitoring and evaluation. The document also provides a list of resources and contacts for further information and support.

COMPENSATION OF AGENT(S): (OPTIONAL)

Your agent is entitled to be reimbursed from your assets for reasonable expenses incurred on your behalf. If you ALSO wish your agent(s) to be compensated from your assets for services rendered on your behalf, initial the statement below. If you wish to define "reasonable compensation", you may do so above, under "Modifications".

( ) My agent(s) shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered.

(k) ACCEPTANCE BY THIRD PARTIES:

I agree to indemnify the third party for any claims that may arise against the third party because of reliance on this Power of Attorney. I understand that any termination of this Power of Attorney, whether the result of my revocation of the Power of Attorney or otherwise, is not effective as to a third party until the third party has actual notice or knowledge of the termination.

(l) TERMINATION:

This Power of Attorney continues until I revoke it or it is terminated by my death or other event described in section 5-1511 of the General Obligations Law.

Section 5-1511 of the General Obligations Law describes the manner in which you may revoke your Power of Attorney, and the events which terminate the Power of Attorney.

(n) IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE AGENT:

When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Authority, a special legal relationship is created between you and the principal. This relationship imposes on your legal responsibilities that continue until you resign or the Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- (1) act according to any instructions from the principal, or, where there are no instructions, in the principal's best interest;*
- (2) avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the principal's best interest;*
- (3) keep the principal's property separate and distinct from any assets you own or control, unless otherwise permitted by law;*
- (4) keep a record of all receipts, payments, and transactions conducted for the principal; and*
- (5) disclose your identity as an agent whenever you act for the principal by writing or printing the principal's name and signing your own name as "agent" in either of the following manners; (Principal's Name) by (Your Signature) as Agent, or (your signature) as Agent for (Principal's Name).*

You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or anyone else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has specifically granted you that authority in this document, which is either a Statutory Gift Rider attached to a Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney or a Non-Statutory Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best interest.

You may resign by giving written notice to the principals and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor, if one has been named in this document, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed. If there is anything about this document or your responsibilities that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

Liability of agent: The meaning of the authority given to you is defined in New York's General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. If it is found that you have violated the law or acted outside the authority granted to you in the Power of Attorney, you may be liable under the law for your violation.

(o) AGENT'S SIGNATURE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPOINTMENT:

It is not required that the principal and the agent(s) at the same time, nor that multiple agents sign at the same time.

I, James Edward Blair, Jr., have read the foregoing Power of Attorney. I am the person identified therein as agent(s) for the principal named therein.

I acknowledge my legal responsibilities.
