Form W-9 (For use in certifying the Taxpayer Identification Number provided above)

Form W-9: This section must be signed by the NEW HOLDER/RECIPIENT, as shown above, whose SSN/EIN is entered above.
Certification: Under penalty of perjury, I certify that (1) the number shown on this form is my correct Taxpayer identification number, and (2) I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and (3) I am a US citizen or other US person, and (4) I am exempt from FATCA reporting.

Certification Instructions: You must cross out item (2) in the above paragraph if you have been notified by IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

Important Cost Basis and Share Lot Information: All transfers submitted online or via the Transfer Wizard forms will be processed as GIFT transfers. For transfers submitted in the mail, all transfers will be treated as Gifts, unless decedent transfer is selected as the reason for transfer in which case the transfer will be treated as an inheritance. We recommend you consult with your tax adviser regarding the tax implications

KEEP YOUR ACCOUNT ACTIVE - to prevent your assets from being turned over to state governments as abandoned property. Activities such as cashing a check, updating your address or voting your proxy will keep your account active. Accessing your account online, using our automated phone system, or speaking to a customer service representative may also keep your account active for purposes of state abandoned property laws. NOTE: Automated transactions, such as dividend reinvestment or amounts paid directly to your bank account, are generally not considered account activity.
